Excerpt from A Sermon: Preached in the Mathewson Street; Methodist Episcopal Church, Providence R. I.; On Sunday, July 27, 1862 Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my commandment which I commanded them: for they have taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and thy have put it even among their own stuff. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you. - Joshua, 7th chap: 11 - 12 v. No man, who reads and believes scripture history and biography, can doubt that God beholds all the minutiae of this world's affairs, even to the most private acts of individuals, and that the changes in His administration are made in view of them. In other words, that God's administrative government over this world is a government of special as well as general laws; that he often changes the currents of life, from the humblest individual up to the...
